Honorable Philip Young
The White House
Washington, D. C.

Dear Phil:

I have received your letter of 29 June 1964 requesting the temporary assignment of [] to assist Mr. Henry Du Fon of your staff who is supervising a project for an improved personnel system for foreign affairs operations. As you know, [] has just recently returned to the Agency from a three months' period of temporary service with the [] and while I am reluctant to lose his services for an additional three months I do feel that the importance of this project is such that this Agency should lend its full support. To this end it would be appreciated if [] of our Personnel Office could also participate in this work.

[] has an extensive background in personnel and career development activities and is well qualified to represent this Agency in this field. I am advised that Mr. [] our Deputy Assistant Director for Personnel, discussed [] assignment with Mr. Du Fon, who has indicated approval.

Sincerely,

Allen D. Dulles
Director
